Assignment #7

New Students: Pick up a copy of the book Art and Fear. There will be questions for you to answer in Edmodo. I will have the assignment due dates set for the first month of school. To avoid stress you could finish reading the book in a weekend and answer the questions during the summer. To be posted after school gets out.

Returning students: you will lead the discussions on each chapter (you need to be ready with insights, reread your notes and your answers...Have at least 2 questions for each chapter ready.)
